

May 1, 2008

Village Real Estate to open suburban office

By CHAS SISK
Staff Writer

Village Real Estate Services will open an office in Franklin, its first in a Nashville suburb.

The firm, which has specialized in urban residential real estate, said a team of nine agents led by Brenda Tuck Campbell will focus on urban growth in Franklin's downtown.

Tuck Campbell is a former president of the Williamson County Association of Realtors and a former state governor of the Tennessee chapter of the Women's Council of Realtors.
